Starting at 6:00 p.m., dancers dressed in Greek, Roman, and Renaissance-themed tunics and drapery will offer dancing lessons for children ages 3-14 throughout the gardens. Stories from Greek mythology will be our thematic reference points, starting with Odysseus and the four winds, to bouncy runs from the Atalanta story, Pandora's box, the labors of Hercules, Artemis and the hunt, and friendship dances. There will be live music accompaniment by Damian Boucher on the fiddle and by Max Zbiral-Teller on the hammered dulcimer. Gather at the Reflecting Pond.

At 8:00 p.m., the Company will perform on the South Lawn a series of dances telling a story based on the Greek mythology of Orpheus and Eurydice. Lori Belilove shares her vision of the wedding festivities, the funeral lament of Eurydice's death, and Orpheus's decent to the underworld and his encounter with the Furies. The finale follows the couple’s ascent out of the cavernous Tartarus surrounded by the Blessed Spirits into the idyllic union of the lovers. Music by C.W. Gluck from the opera Orfeo.
