Spring greetings! Please see our upcoming performances, classes and workshops. With such full schedules for everyone, we are hoping you can make any of the events below that might interest you. We welcome you!

April 18-22 | Randolph College
Artistic Director Lori Belilove returns to Randolph College for one week. She will teach the Duncan technique and repertory to students at the Dance Department. Guests are welcomed to technique classes. Contact IDDF at 212-691-5040; info@isadoraduncan.org.

April 30 | Nietzsche and Dance
IDDF and Nietzsche Circle present “Nietzsche and Dance”. Nietzsche inspired many modern dancers, none more so than Isadora Duncan. With this event on Nietzsche and Duncan we bring dancers and thinkers together to explore the dynamic relationship between dancing and thinking. The event includes performances and lectures by Lori Belilove, Kimerer L. LaMothe, Yunus Tuncel, Geoffrey Gee, and Krista Johansson. $25 general / $20 student. BUY NOW

May 7 | Isadora Birthday Celebration

IN THE NEWS!
Read about our new home in Shenzhen, China in The Dance Enthusiast.
IDDF offers a full day of dance classes for professional dancers, children ages 4-9, and the general public, with a minimum contribution of $5 at the door. At 5:00 p.m. begins a birthday party for Isadora and includes wine and cheese reception, opening remarks by Lori Belilove, performance of "Tanagra Figures" by The Company, participating students and guest dancers, video screening of rare archival footage, and a super sale of "all things Isadora" (tunics, wreaths, scarves, books, posters, and videos). The event is suitable for families and art lovers, with a raffle, birthday cake, and bubbly. Proceeds go toward The Company's performing tour to Athens. Tickets are $20. BUY NOW

May 9 | IDDF 2016 Gala

This event includes performance by Lori Belilove & The Isadora Duncan Dance Company, live music, buffet dinner, wine and cocktails, and live auction. Proceeds go toward The Company's performing tour to Athens. Tickets start at $100 and can be purchased by contacting Tina Huang at tina@isadoraduncan.org; 212-691-5040.

May 13-14 | Salon Performances

IDDF presents its signature Salon series. On Friday, May 13 the program, titled “You were wild once, don’t let them tame you.” includes a pre-show lecture "Isadora: the original lean-in feminist and wild woman" by Lori Belilove. On Saturday, May 14 the program draws upon "Inspiration of the Greek Ideal". Both performances are followed by cake and bubbly with The Company. Proceeds go toward The Company's performing tour to Athens. Tickets start at $20, $30 preferred seating. BUY NOW

May 27-June 3 | Beijing Normal University

Lori Belilove returns to Beijing Normal University for one week. She will teach the Duncan technique and offer teacher training to students at the Dance and Dance Education Departments.

June 25 | Old Westbury Gardens

We return to perform at Old Westbury Gardens on Saturday, June 25 (rain date: Sunday, June 26). Lori Belilove has created a site-specific homage to the gardens with her dancers using Greek mythology as thematic reference points. The program begins at 7:00 p.m. with a performance at Colonnade, continues with a dance class/may pole for children at South Allee, and culminates in a performance at South Lawn.

June 29 - July 6 | Study Tour to Greece

Our study tour includes dance classes, children's class observations, and lectures at Isadora's re-stored house on the hill of Kopanos. We will immerse ourselves in Greek culture, visiting museums and archeological sites and enjoying tavernas and romantic nights of the city. This study tour is open to dancers, scholars, and lifelong students who are eager for the experience of a lifetime. MORE INFO
