Isadora Duncan's 139th Birthday Celebration

Friday, May 13
Saturday, May 14 (best availability)

8:00pm

IDDF Studio
141 West 26th Street, 3rd Floor
New York, NY 10001

$20 General Admission; $30 Preferred Seating
$20 at the door, space permitting

The details:

IDDF presents its signature Salon series, featuring Company dancers Lori Belilove, Emily D'Angelo, Faith Kimberling, Morgana Mellett, and Nikki Poulos, with live accompaniment by pianist Matthew Martin Ward. The Salon series are rare opportunities for audiences to see original troupes in an intimate setting.

News! An addition to the program: We will pair ancient Greek poems -- Sappho and others -- with Isadora's Dances. Classic Greek Scholar, dramatist, and Isadora Duncan Dancer (former Belilovable) Rachel Herzog, will join us for the program. You are in for a treat!

On Friday, May 13, the program, titled "You were wild once, don't let them tame you." includes a pre-show lecture "Isadora: the original lean-in feminist and wild woman" by Lori Belilove. Repertory includes: Brahms's waltzes The Many Faces of Love, and Chopin's Valse Brillante, waltzes, etudes, and mazurkas.
On Saturday, May 14, the program draws upon "Inspirations of the Greek Ideal", Highlight includes Schubert's waltzes Lullaby, Champagne, and Tanagra, and a suite of dances from C.W. Gluck's opera Orfeo: Dance of the Furies, Dance of the Blessed Spirits, and Cherubim.

Both performances are followed by cake and bubbly with The Company. Tickets start at $20, $30 for preferred seating. Proceeds for both events go towards The Company's performing tour to Greece.

---

Photos: Jason Chuang

---

Isadora Duncan Dance Foundation, 141 West 26th Street #3, New York, NY 10001